

HUMAN RIGHTS

transformations • challenges • antinomies

Programme

The Doctoral Research Triangle

LSE - Essex - Cambridge

Wednesday 30 November 2016

9:30am to 4.00pm

Wivenhoe House, University of Essex, Colchester

09:15-09:45	Arrival and Registration
09:45-10:00	Welcome by Dr Ahmed Shaheed, Deputy Director, Human Rights Centre, University of Essex
10:00-11:30	Panel I Chair: Dr Gus Waschefort (Human Rights Centre, University of Essex)	Eka Iakobishvili (Essex) – Transgender Prisoners under International Human Rights Law: Models for Protection  Clare Hammerton (Essex) – Sexual Rights in International Development  Philippe van Basshuysen (LSE) – On the distribution of asylum: preferences, numbers, and human rights
11:30-11:45	Tea
11:45-13:15	Panel II Chair: Dr Daragh Murray (Human Rights Centre, University of Essex)	Catharine Bevilacqua (Cambridge) – Implementation of Human Rights by the UN During Peace Operations  Sophie Rosenberg (Cambridge) – The International Criminal Court in Côte d’Ivoire: A Case Study in (Im)partiality  Silvia Vinier (Essex) – States’ Obligations in Risk and Crisis Management: Can Human Rights Law Contribute to Enhancing Protection?
13:15-14:15	Lunch
14:15-15:45	Panel III Chair: Prof Chetan Bhatt (Director, Centre for the Study of Human Rights, LSE)	Jennifer Chisholm (Cambridge) – Land Rights for All: Land, Housing Rights, and Indigenous Identity Politics in Rio de Janeiro  Sarah Trotter (LSE) – The Idea of ‘the Individual’ in European Human Rights Law  Morteza Shirzad (Essex) – Judicial Independence and Judges’ Role-Conception in Iran
15:45-16:00	Closing by Dr Gus Waschefort, Human Rights Centre, University of Essex

