

VIII MEETINGS

ON ETHICS AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

INVITED SPEAKERS

Alison M. Jaggar

University of Colorado at Boulder
University of Birmingham, UK

8-9 JUNE 2017

UNIVERSITY OF MINHO
BRAGA - PORTUGAL

Gustaf Arrhenius

Stockholm University
Institute for Futures Studies

Call for Papers

VIII Braga Meetings on Ethics and Political Philosophy

University of Minho

Braga, Portugal

June 8-9, 2017

The Braga Meetings on Ethics and Political Philosophy have established a reputation in the past editions for providing scholars with an excellent opportunity to present both advanced and exploratory work to a welcoming audience. Graduate students, junior researchers and senior scholars are welcome to submit their work.

This event is organized by the Political Theory Group of CEHUM, University of Minho (Braga)

Proposals are welcome.

We welcome proposals in any area of moral, political, or legal philosophy and in normative political theory.

Keynote speakers this year will be:

Prof. Alison M. Jaggar (University of Colorado at Boulder, University of Birmingham, UK)

Other worlds are possible—but which are gender just?

Prof. Gustaf Arrhenius (Stockholm University/Institute for Futures Studies)

The Democratic Boundary Problem

Abstract submission:

Proposals must contain an abstract (400-500 words) prepared for blind review, along with 5 keywords.

Please provide your name, contact information, affiliation, and a short 2-3 line bio.

Proposals must be sent via the Registration Form available on the site.

Further queries can be directed to meetings.epp@gmail.com

Proposals must be sent via the registration form available on our site.

Deadline for abstract submissions: April 10 2017.

Deadline for notification of acceptance: April 30 2017.

The official language of the conference will be English. They can also be given in Portuguese and Spanish, provided that they are accompanied by a handout or slides in English.

<http://meetingsethicspoliticalphil.weebly.com/>